ANNUAL ADDRESS.

(BY REV. C. J. SPRINGFIELD)

Dear Brethren:

To the Cedar Grove Association, Greetings:—We are now in the midst of the fifty-third Annual Meeting, when we look back to remote the distance from which this Association has come and the obstacles it has overcome and difficulties summounted in its coming, we exclaim, "What has God Wrought," and how mysteriously He works. This Association began in a small way, but its high hope and broad vision, its purpose through the years has been to encourage the saving of the young people to the churches, and to organize and inspire them for service and usefulness, while more progressive work along the lines mentioned might have been done, the work of this Association has by no means been a failure. We have before us now a problem, larger, perhaps than ever before.

The problem arising out of the present situation of our school institution in which we meet to hold our Association. Dear brethren we are glad of this place and proud to meet here face to face. It will try our faith and test our devotion and love to God our Father, the Author of Peace and Love.

Dear Brethren, we of course are and must be heartily loyal to our duty. We know no other institution that we love as we do this one, because we need it in our country, the country needs its influence. Our prayers, our sympathy, our Christian man-power and our money, all of these we should give gladly and be proud of the opportunities offered us to serve in any way and in every capacity we can, we should encourage our neighbors and friends to do the same, we should talk it and write it, not only in public places, but around our fire-sides and in private communication and interview. There are about five thousand people belonging to this Association, and if each one would give one dollar ($1.00) a year we could run our school without a failure.

The hearts of our people are soft and sympathetic and easily touched, why may we not take an advantage of it to impress upon them the whole gospel truth that they may become active, wide-awake and serviceable members of our Churches and Association as if to make the command more imphatic. Just before Christ stepped upon the clouds which were to take him to Heaven, again our Lord looked down upon his followers and said, "Go Ye Into all the world and Preach the Gospel to Every Creature".

Dear Brethren, there are three great missions before us calling more loudly now than ever before, namely, Home Missions, Foreign Missions and Education. Let us better ourselves to these great missions as never before.

Now, Dear brethren, the last but not the least, a word or two about our Sunday School Convention. We had a wonderful session under our present leaders. If we could bestir the pastors of our churches we could make it a great success. I also recommend that each pastor that is holding charge in our bounds, and deacons to do all that is in their power te get their churches to raise all the money they can for Education, Home and Foreign Missions.

Hoping that the Lord of our salutation, of this setting will ever guide and protect us.

Yours truly,
REV. C. J. SPRINGFIELD, Moderator.

CONSTITUTION

Article 1. This Association shall be called the Cedar Grove Association.

Art. 2 The object of this Association shall be to promote the cause of the Lord Jesus Christ, wherever God in His province shall permit us to labor.

Art. 3. This Association shall be composed of regular Baptist churches in the following manner: Each church connected with the Association shall be entitled to send two delegates (together with any licensed minister who holds his membership or pastoral charges within our bounds), who shall produce letters from their respective churches certifying their appointment, the number baptised the preceding year, restored, deceased, dismissed by letter, excommunicated, the whole number in full fellowship, and the days on which they hold their church meeting. The letters shall also contain a general statement of the condition of the church.

Art. 4. The officers of this Association shall be a Moderator, Vice-Moderator, Clerk, Treasurer and Corresponding Secretary, who shall be elected by a ballot at an annual meeting, and shall hold their offices until another election.

Art. 5. The Moderator shall preside in all meetings of the Association, state and put all questions, and announce the vote of the body. The Clerk shall record the proceedings of the Association, prepare and superintend the printing of the minutes, distribute them, and enter them in a book to be kept for that purpose. The treasurer shall receive and hold all moneys belonging to the Association, subject to the order of the Association, and shall make at each annual meeting a report of the Association.

Art. 6. This Association will have no power to interfere with the internal affairs of the churches, but it shall be its business to advise and aid the affairs of the church in the accomplishment of the object specified in the second article of this Constitution.

Art. 7. Any regular Baptist church, by sending delegates to the annual meeting of the body, may be admitted into this union, provided that no church shall be received except by the unanimous vote of the delegates present.

Art. 8. This Association shall correspond by delegates with kindred institutions whenever convenient, but no delegate from any other association shall be allowed a vote in this.

Art. 9. Any church in good order, wishing to withdraw from this Association, shall upon making a written request to that effect, be entitled to dismission.

Art. 10. It will be expected of the churches composing this Association to remit the funds intended by them for the promotion of the object specified in second article to the Association, and such funds shall be faithfully applied according to the directions accompanying them. Nothing in this article or in this Constitution shall be construed as to compel the churches to contribute to any object.

Art. 11. Alterations or amendments to this Constitution, provided they do not affect the second, sixth and tenth articles, may be made by a proposition to any annual meeting, subject to approbation of two-thirds of the members present at the next annual meeting.

Art. 12. Be it enacted by the Cedar Grove Association that the Constitution governing this Association shall be amended so as to read: "One holding an office in this Association shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of this Association until his successor is elected and qualified."

Resolved, 1. That in the morning of each session of this Association some time be spent in devotional exercises.

fund to support such young men in Cedar Grove Academy, that they may be able to obtain an education.

24. Hereafter no candidate shall be ordained to the ministry without our bounds unless he is competent of mastering the English language correctly and also have a competent knowledge of mathematics.

25. That the ordaining board of the Mount Zion District and Olive Grove District constitute a committee to examine all ministers whom they think to be unqualified to preach the gospel according to Baptist usages.

26. That we recommend that the herein session adopt the Baptist Hiscock's Directory as the standard, and the only standard, by which the ministers shall be guided.

27. That after the adoption of the above report any minister failing to instruct his church in the same shall be nonrecognized by the ministers of this Association. We also recommend that all complaints against any minister be referred to the ordaining board.
